

Podiatry

Under the new guidelines, Podiatry will be covered under the participants improved daily living budget. The NDIS is encouraging podiatrists to provide training to support workers to allow them to perform daily maintenance and care.

The NDIS has also confirmed that it will cover specialized shoes and footwear, orthoses and AFO's (provided an AT form is completed). This should hopefully clear up a number of questions we have had about this in the past.